

Govt report to Delhi HC on ‘deepfakes’

DEEPPAKES TARGETING WOMEN during state elections, a rise in scam content using AI, better enforcement rather than new laws, and lack of uniform definition for “deepfake” — these are some of the key concerns raised by stakeholders, according to a status report submitted by the government to the Delhi High Court on Monday. According to the report, a nine-member panel set up by the government in November 2024, met technology and policy and technology stakeholders twice since then, the last being on January 21. The stakeholders pressed for mandatory regulation around AI content disclosure with a caveat that the emphasis should be on malicious actors rather than on creative uses of deepfake technology. —ENS

S. Securities Act and applicable U.S. state securities laws. Accordingly, the Equity Shares are being offered and sold outside the United States in "offshore transactions" in reliance of Regulations and the applicable laws of each jurisdiction where such offers and sales are made. There will be no public offering of the Equity Shares in the United States.

Speaker pulls up Rahul, adjourns Lok Sabha; Cong questions Birla

ASAD REHMAN
New Delhi, March 26

TRIGGERING YET ANOTHER face-off in the Lok Sabha, Speaker Om Birla Wednesday abruptly adjourned the House after noting that members, especially Leader of the Opposition Rahul Gandhi, should conduct themselves “in a manner that maintains the high standards and dignity” of Parliament. Gandhi was not allowed to speak when he rose up to reply, and Congress sources said Birla had been unable to explain to them the provocation behind his statement.

Birla made the remarks during Zero Hour, before adjourning the House. A Congress delegation, including Deputy Leader in the Lok Sabha Gaurav Gogoi, party whip Manickam Tagore and general secretary K C Venugopal among others, subsequently met Birla in his chamber.

A Congress MP said Birla had no answer to their questions about why he had suggested that Gandhi and other members were not maintaining the dignity of the House, and told them to meet him later. “The Speaker gave no answer to our questions. We told him that this kind of disrespect of the Leader of the Opposition is unacceptable. We told him that this was the fourth time the Leader of the Opposition wasn’t allowed to speak,” the MP said.

Gogoi told The Indian Express: “We met the Speaker, but all I would like to say is that we didn’t get any clarity.”

Another Congress MP, also part of the group that met Birla, said the party suspects that the trigger for Birla was Congress questioning of his “failure to keep the House in order” whenever Prime Minister Narendra Modi makes an appearance in Parliament and is greeted by BJP MPs with slogans.

“When the PM came to the House to speak on Kumbh, all the ministers and BJP members stood up and raised slogans. Some Congress MPs raised the issue that the Speaker could not keep the House in order. The same thing happened today (when the PM came to Parliament). Maybe that was the reason he spoke about maintaining dignity,” the Congress MP told The Indian Express.

“We think it is part of the BJP government’s agenda to demean the Leader of the Opposition,” another Congress MP who met Birla said.

In his remarks during Zero Hour Wednesday, Birla said: “Several instances have come to my notice where the conduct of members does not conform to the high standards... In this House, father and daughter, mother and daughter, husband and wife have been members. In this context, I expect the Leader of the Opposition to conduct himself in accordance with Rule 349, that deals with the rules to be observed by members in the House... Especially, it is expected of the Leader of the Opposition to conduct himself as per the rules.”

As Gandhi rose to speak, Birla adjourned the House.

Speaking to reporters outside, Gandhi said the House “was not being run as per democratic norms.” “After he (Birla) said that, I said, ‘Look, as the LoP, let me speak’. He just ran away. So, I don’t understand what is going on. This is no way to run the House. Literally, the Speaker got up and left and didn’t let me speak a word.

SC stays Allahabad HC’s rape remarks

CALLING IT “INSENSITIVE” and “inhuman,” the Supreme Court on Wednesday stayed the Allahabad High Court’s recent observations that grabbing a girl’s breasts and breaking the drawstrings of her pyjama were “not sufficient” to hold the charges of rape or attempt to rape. “We are at pains to say that some of the observations made in the impugned order and particularly in paragraphs 21, 24 and 26 depict a total lack of sensitivity on the part of the author of the judgment,” a bench of Justices B R Gavai and A G Masih said.

“In normal circumstances, we are slow in granting stay at this stage. But since the observations appearing in paragraphs 21, 24 and 26 are totally unknown to the canons of law and depict total insensitive and inhuman approach, we are inclined to stay the said observations,” the bench said.

It also noted that the HC’s judgment on March 17 was not “dictated at the spur of the moment.” “The case was reserved on 13.11.2024 and after almost a period of more than four months the learned judge has pronounced the judgment. ENS

House panel recommends EV inclusion in FAME-III

NITIN KUMAR
New Delhi, March 26

THE PARLIAMENTARY STANDING committee on industry recommended the government on Wednesday to include electric vehicles in the upcoming FAME-III scheme. This move is seen as crucial to boost their market share under the Electric Mobility Mission and further diversify the range of supported vehicles.

The committee urged the government to broaden the scope of the current FAME-II scheme, proposing an extension of at least three years. This extension, the panel argued, should be implemented in consultation with industry stakeholders to make the subsidy scheme more inclusive and effective. The government is expected to review the committee's suggestions and engage in further dialogue with key stakeholders to refine the policy framework for electric mobility.

This recommendation comes as passenger electric vehicles hold just 2% market share. The auto industry argues that to boost EV adoption, the government must include passenger electric cars in the PM E-Drive scheme. The overall EV penetration has crossed 7% market share in the country in 2024. The committee noted that the initial targets under the FAME-II scheme were revised by reducing the number of vehicles supported.

The committee also expressed concerns over the rationale behind launching the PM-E Drive Scheme. Despite the success of FAME-I and FAME-II, the government introduced PM-E Drive with similar objectives, a comparable budget of ₹10,900 crore, and largely similar components, the report said. This overlap could lead to confusion among beneficiaries, it said.
